

The main title of the course is "ALS patient selection and imaging", displayed in a large, bold, yellow font. Below it, the location "Erasmus Medical Center Rotterdam, Netherlands" is written in a smaller, black, sans-serif font.

ALS patient selection and imaging

Erasmus Medical Center Rotterdam, Netherlands

16-17 October 2019

Day 1

09:00	Welcome with coffee and tea
09:30	Introduction of the teachers and aim of the course
09:30 – 10:00	Principles of arterial thrombosis and thrombolysis, including histology from Mr. Clean study
10:00 – 11:00	Imaging in acute stroke
11:00 – 11:15	Coffee break
11:15 – 12:15	Overview of stroke trials
12:15 – 13:00	Lunch
13:00 – 16:00	Practical part including hands-on animal lab session, flow model product training, CT analysis at workstation (interactive)
16:00 – 17:00	Discussion and wrap-up day 1
19:00	Course dinner

Day 2

09:00 – 09:30	Product overview stroke treatment
09:30 – 10:30	Thrombectomy: advanced/complex cases
10:30 – 10:45	Coffee break
10:45 – 12:00	Thrombectomy: advanced/complex cases
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch
13:00 – 14:00	Medical management and neurological monitoring (mRs/NIHSS)
14:00 – 15:30	Interactive case review – faculty & participants (own cases to be discussed)
15:30 – 16:00	Conclusion and adjourn