AlloCraft™ TL

The AlloCraft™ TL spacer is uniquely designed for use in a Transforaminal Lumbar Interbody Fusion (TLIF). This graft is designed to be versatile and easy to use, accommodating a variety of TLIF surgical techniques. The bullet shaped nose allows the graft to be easily inserted into the disc space, while its monolithic construct has potential to provide strength during impaction and following implantation. AlloCraft TL is designed for use with Reliance Total PLIF instrumentation.
