

Teaching Institutions

stryker

Essentials of Sports Medicine (ESM) webinar series

Over the next several months, Stryker's Sports Medicine business unit and our faculty will be highlighting and discussing the essentials in hip, shoulder and knee arthroscopy! Tune in for an engaging and interactive Q&A and discussion on the dates below at 8pm EST/5pm PST via Zoom.

| Date/Time                        | Webinar description   | Registration               |
|----------------------------------|---|----------------------------|
| September 3rd8pm EST/5pm PST | Hip Arthroscopy: Access, Post vs Post-less, Central Compartment, Pre-planning with HipMap       | Click here |
| October 1st8pm EST/5pm PST   | Simplifying RCR Solutions: Tips and Tricks for Cuff and Biceps                                  | Click here |
| November 12th8pm EST/5pm PST | Comprehensive Care of the Knee: Meniscus, ACL Graft and Patient Selection                       | Click here |
| February 18th8pm EST/5pm PST | Continuum of Care in the Hip: Arthroscopy, PAO and direct anterior THA                          | Click here |
| March 18th8pm EST/5pm PST    | Evolving Concepts of Shoulder Instability Repair  | Click here |
| April 15th8pm EST/5pm PST    | Complex Knee Procedures: Multi-lig Repair vs Reconstructions and Revisions in the Elite Athlete | Click here |
| June 3rd8pm EST/5pm PST      | Hip Arthroscopy: Labral Reconstruction Techniques and Pearls                                    | Click here |
| July 15th8pm EST/5pm PST     | Advanced Shoulder Procedures: Massive Cuff Continuum from Repair to rTSA                        | Click here |
|                                  |   |                            |

2026 National Fellows Courses

June 4-6th, 2026 and June 11-13th 2026